

The Silver Dimes

Biography (EN)

Since 2015, The Silver Dimes have been playing raw, soulful blues with heart, grit and groove. In early 2016, the band released their debut EP No Cure No Pay, featuring songs by Tab Benoit, Louisiana Red and William Clarke, among others. The EP received plenty of airplay on national and international (blues) radio stations.

This was quickly followed by shows in clubs and at festivals throughout the Netherlands, including the Delfts Bluesfestival, Meziek mit Bus (Groningen) and Rhythm & Bluestime (Nunspeet). Wherever The Silver Dimes played, they left behind sweaty dance floors and smiling faces.

The debut album Electrifying was released in 2018, an energetic album full of contemporary blues songs. Later that year, the band played at the Sighisoara International Blues Festival in Romania. This performance was followed by the release of Double Trouble – Live @ Sighisoara Blues Festival.

After a break in which the band members explored their own musical paths, the original members Ron Stam, Henk-Jan de Jong and Karel Vogel, together with new drummer Andy Dandy, decided to rekindle the spark in 2026. The Silver Dimes are back!
